KADOMORI METHODS

KADOMORI Synchro Correction is a unique beauty method that was created by Shohei Kadomori that incorporates original theory and technology.

It effectively combines bone correction, medical aesthetics and cosmetic acupuncture, and is customized according to each client's body structure.

Master Practitioner & Founder Shuhei Kadomori

Dr. Shuhei Kadomori is the founder and CEO of KADOMORI, Japan's leading salon for facial correction and beauty acupuncture. With more than 25 years of experience in chiropractic medicine, acupuncture, and structural therapy, he has developed a unique method that blends Eastern and Western approaches to restore facial balance from within.

In addition to his clinical work, Dr. Kadomori also holds an Associate Professor appointment in Chiropractic Medicine at Northwest Samar State University, where he contributes to academic programs and clinical education. His innovations include the Synchro-Wave® method and Hedgehog Beauty Acupuncture®, techniques designed to release deep muscle tension and enhance natural lifting.

Since founding KADOMORI in 2007, he has earned the trust of athletes, celebrities, and clients worldwide. His mission is to elevate natural beauty through structural harmony and science-based care.

ABOUT SYNCHRO-WAVE®

Our unique treatment combines KADOMORI's original and universal aesthetic machine "SYNCHROWAVE®", "which adjusts the bioelectric current of the body.

The technology helps loosen fascia, which can relieve fatigue.
In order to maintain the effects, we recommend periodic treatments.

FACE BONE ADJUSTMENT

Over the past 20 years, we have collectively treated several hundred thousand patients, deriving a unique theory and technique.

HEDGEHOG COSMETIC ACUPUNCTURE

Hedgehog Beauty Acupuncture® is a cosmetic acupuncture treatment created by KADOMORI. By using over 100 specialized needles made in Japan, we effectively stimulate our patients' lymphatic and circulatory systems. Our procedures aim to help improve the elasticity of the face and stimulate the production of collagen, which results in beautiful glowing skin.

Disclaimer:

The procedure may cause slight pain and/or a small amount of bleeding/bruising at some insertion sites with poor blood or lymphatic circulation. However, this will generally heal naturally within a week or two. In order to speed up the recovery process, We recommend a simple massage whilst taking a bath, which will improve circulation.

EGF THERAPY

We use Epidermal Growth Factor (EGF), a protein that stimulates cellular growth of the skin. Massaging the skin with our original Guasha.
